

Call for Presenters Submission Form

Let's Talk Business is a weekly webinar series occurring every Wednesday from 12-1 p.m. (Pacific) hosted by the Washington Center for Women in Business. Each episode of Let's Talk Business will feature a topic of importance to the small business community from a variety of industries around Washington State.

We seek speakers and topics that will meet the following objectives:

- Educates the attendees on a pertinent small business topic OR
- Introduces the attendees to new ideas or processes that they could implement
- Provide the attendee with enough information so they are more likely to find success as a small business & is not a "commercial" for the presenter's business or services

The selected presenters will be expected to provide a webinar description, photo, and bio four weeks prior to the scheduled webinar date to ensure promotion of the event.
